Memo

Letter No 290 d 26th July 92 from D.C. Hassan

Jodi Mallanayakanballi in the Hassan Taluk was taken under Govt. management in 1883 for arrears of revenue due to Govt. ~~Rs 185-12-3~~

(1) The arrears amounted to Rs. 185-12-3,

(2) Annual Jodi &c. payable to Govt, from 1883-84 to 1890-91 inclusive, to Rs. 175-13-8,

(3) Bandh Charges — to Rs. 57-8-0,

(4) Survey Expenses — to Rs. 34-15-6,

+ (5) Interest on arrears to Rs. 55-11-10.

Total due to Govt. Rs. 509-13-3

2. The Dy. Commr. reports that the whole of this amount has been paid up by the Jodidars and recommends the restoration of the village to them. It would have been in due form if the statement of payment were supported by a certificate from the Treasury Officer -

3. With reference to Sec 167 of the Land Revenue

the Dy Comr was asked to report what was the cost of the attachment and management. In reply, the Dy Comr says "no cost was incurred on account of the collection & management of the village during the period it was under Govt charge and nothing is now due thereon".

In such cases, it is advisable to fix a percentage with reference to the revenue of the village, for general adoption, in calculating the cost of attachment & management under Sec 167.

Submitted with a draft sanctioning the restoration of the inam.
